Generally the kind of lamp that lights your feet is the kind you hold in your hand. God's word is the same you have to hold it in your hand. You have to keep it with you.

For some the winds of childhood are gentle breezes. Others live daily with hurricane force gales of fear, anger, loneliness, the breakup of their family...even death and war. None of us parent or child knows what is ahead of us.

In the end all we have...any of us are God's: "Precious Promises". Share them with your children.

Anyone can learn a Bible verse but not everyone sees the power. Seeing the power requires persistence. Help your children take bible verses seriously...and often. Persistence matters.

Grace means: “God does not give us what we deserve. He gives us what we need.”

God is good at grace. Tell him what you think you need. Trust Him to give you what you really need.

Some children SEE very little good in the world. Bible verses can help such children live beyond the things they see.

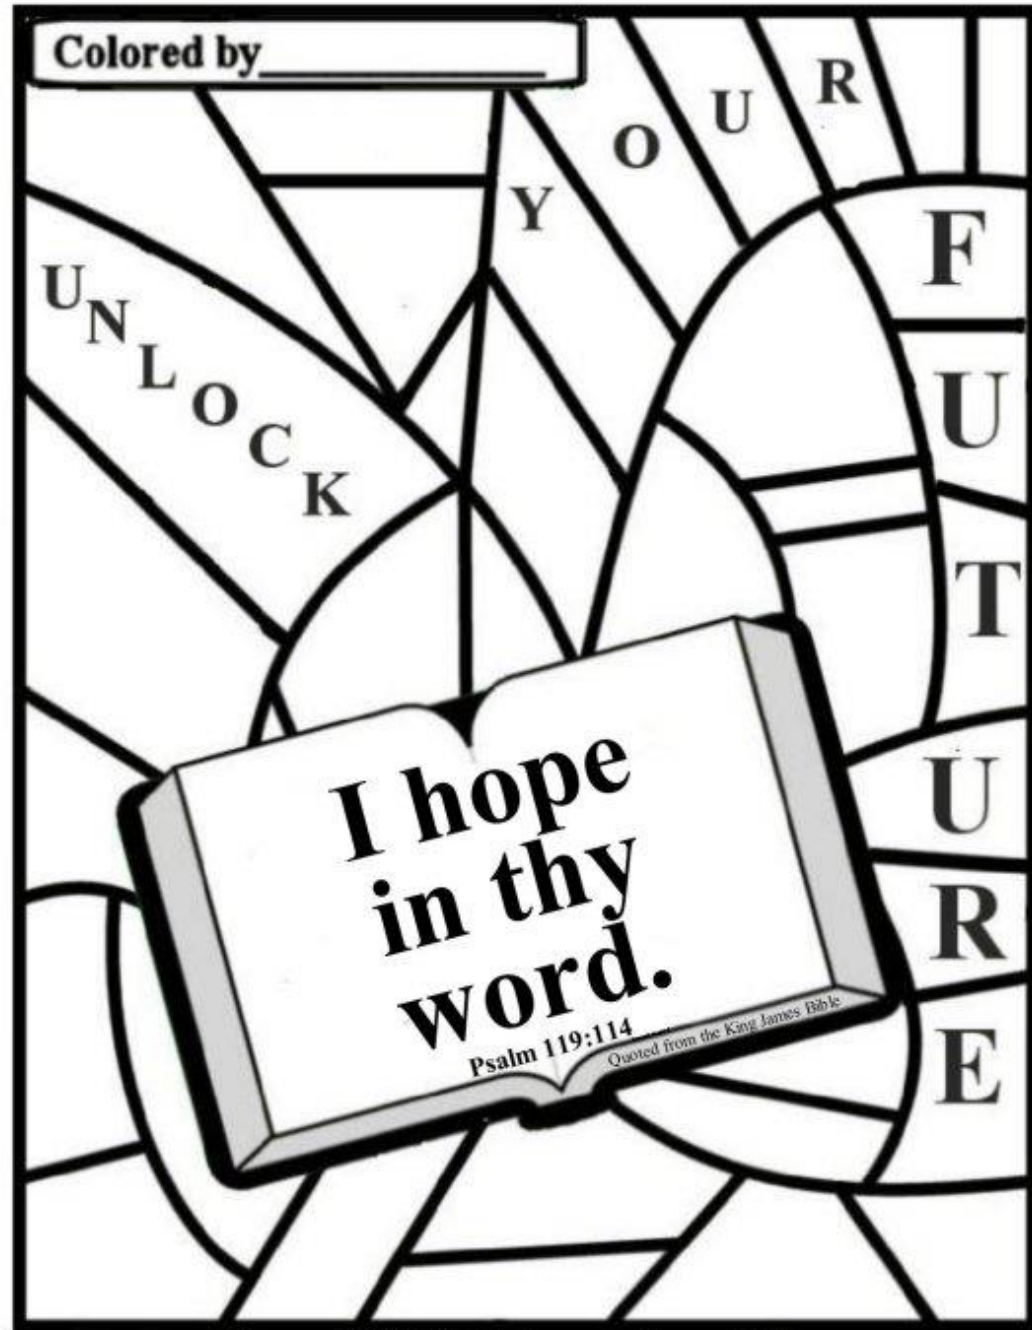

God truly is the God of today. This should not make us forget that he is also the God of Tomorrow, the God who makes all things new...The God of Hope.
